Article I Area Service Committee Members

Section I

The Area Service Committee shall consist of: Group Service Representative, Executive Committee Officers and other Committee Officers.

Executive Officers

- I. Regional Committee Member (RCM)
- II. Alternate Regional Committee Member (alt RCM)
- III. Chairperson
- IV. Vice-Chairperson
- V. Secretary
- VI. Alternate Secretary
- VII. Treasurer
- VIII. Alternate Treasurer

Other Officers

- IX. ASC Sub Committee Chairpersons
- X. Ad-hoc Subcommittee Chairpersons

Article II Voting Policy

Section 1

The only voting members of the ASC will be the GSRs, their alternates or elected representatives (one vote per group). GSRs or alternates who miss two (2) consecutive meetings will have their group notified that their voting privileges have been suspended until they attend three (3) consecutive ASC meetings; however if a group is unable to send a representative they can submit a report to the secretary and retain their vote when they return. Voting groups who submit their reports without attending for three (3) consecutive meetings will have their groups notified that their voting privileges have been suspended until they attend two (2) consecutive ASC meetings with their voting privileges reinstated on the second meeting. GSRs of newly seated groups will have to attend three (3) consecutive meetings and will have their vote at the third meeting. Intent: by limiting the vote to these people will help ensure that decisions made by the Area accurately represent the conscience of the group it represents. Groups within CNANA that are more than 100 km from HRM will not have their voting privileges suspended.

Section 2

For votes on policy changes (i.e. guidelines) groups unable to attend the Area may submit their vote to the area secretary prior to the ASC meeting.

Section 1

GSRs cannot hold ASC officer positions but are encouraged to serve as sub-committee members (excluding sub-committee chairperson).

Section 2

ASC officers shall serve no more than two (2) consecutive terms in office. Interim terms of six (6) months or less shall not be considered full terms.

Section 3

Clean time requirements may be waived by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of the voting members present.

Section 4

Service experience requirements may be waived by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of the voting members present.

Article V: Removal of Officers

Section 1

A service member may be removed from their position for non-compliance. A two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of voting members present is required for removal.

Non-compliance including but is not limited to: loss of abstinence [relapse] (automatic removal), non-fulfillment of the duties of their positions.

Section 2

An officer of this committee may resign by providing written notification to the ASC Chairperson one (1) month before the resignation takes effect.

Article VI: ASC Meetings (when they are held)

Section 1

The regular meetings of the ASC shall be held on the last Sunday of each month unless otherwise ordered by the ASC.

Section 2

- ❖ If a regularly scheduled ASC meeting falls on a holiday Sunday, the meeting will be automatically postponed until the following Sunday.
- ❖ The ASC shall not meet during the months of July and December

Section 3

- ❖ Special meetings may be called by the Chairperson of the ASC upon written request of a member of the committee. The purpose of the meeting shall be stated
- ❖ No business other than that which has been stated may be conducted
- ❖ At least seven (7) days' notice shall be given

Article VII: Elections (how and when officers are elected)

Section 1

Annual elections for all officers and all sub-committee chairpersons will be held at the regular October ASC meeting.

Section 2

Nominations will be held for two (2) consecutive months before elections.

Nominees are required to be present during the month they are nominated and for elections and must qualify upon acceptance of the nomination.

Section 3

Nominations for all open positions shall be the first order of new business at each regular ASC meeting. Elections will follow one (1) month after nominations qualify.

Section 4

Newly elected officers will assume responsibility immediately following the ASC meeting at which they are elected except the newly elected secretary who will assume responsibility at the ASC following their election.

Section 5

In the event of a tie during elections the Vice-Chairperson, the Treasurer and the RCM shall cast the deciding vote.

Section 3

Fifty percent (50%) of voting members shall constitute a quorum.

Section 4

If a quorum is not present or less than two (2) executive committee members are present, no business can be conducted.

Section 5

If a quorum is not present for three (3) consecutive months, the ASC will not meet until such time as a quorum can be present.

Article IX: Standing Sub-committees

Section 1

The ASC may establish sub-committees as necessary to perform certain duties. These standing committees shall be formed upon approval of the voting members of the ASC.

Standing sub-committees may include but are not limited to Public Relations committee, Literature Committee, Steering committee and any other subcommittee deemed necessary to carry on the work of the ASC.

At the inception of these subcommittees a chairperson will be elected by the voting members present at the ASC. Subsequent officers of each standing committee will be elected by that subcommittee.

Section 2

All standing committees of the ASC shall create and adopt guidelines, which are consistent with the Guide to Local Service in Narcotics Anonymous (and its successors), the Twelve Traditions of Narcotics Anonymous and the best information available from the World Service Office (WSO) in the form of WSC approved handbooks and guidelines.

All subcommittee guideline changes are to be approved by the ASC.

A subcommittee and / or ASC Executive may bring forth a motion to the ASC dealing with the business of their subcommittee or steering committee without a seconder for that motion.

Section 3

The Steering Committee consists of the ASC executive officers.

The purpose and function of this committee is to process information based on the area's request and bring back to the area the committee's recommendations.

The committee is responsible for making an annual report/ financial review of contributions and expenditures at the end of each service year, October 31st year-end.

Article X: Ad-Hoc Sub-committees

Section 1

The ASC may, when deemed necessary, create an ad-hoc committee to perform a specific function.

The purpose and duration of this committee will be specifically designed by the ASC at the time of its creation.

The ASC shall vote on nominees for the Ad-Hoc Committee Chairperson. In the absence of nominees or volunteers, the Ad-Hoc committee shall be deemed unnecessary.

Article XI: Fund Flow System

Section 1

The ASC will set up a prudent reserve to cover operating expenses in the event that fund flow is interrupted.

Section 2

Once the prudent reserve and monthly expenditures have been met, the remaining will be passed on to the RSC. If our sub-committee needs are not met then the money will be split fifty percent (50%) for the RSC contribution and the other fifty percent (50%) towards the sub-committee(s) needs.

Article XII: Amendment of Guidelines

Section 1

Amendments to the guidelines require a two-thirds (2/3) majority of all voting groups present or who have submitted their vote.

Section 2

The proposed amendment must be submitted in motion form and seconded before it is considered by the ASC.

Section 3

If the amendment is seconded, the Chairperson will call discussion.

Section 4

The amendment will be voted on at the ASC meeting in which it was seconded, unless further time is deemed by the ASC.
